

SDSU Department of Sociology and Center for Community Research and Engagement Presents

Black Lives Matter Movement & Intersectionality

Wednesday, April 14 (7pm - 9pm)

Buki Domingos (she/her) is the Founder of the Racial Justice Coalition of San Diego, member of the World March of Women, board member of the Survivor Leader Network of San Diego, and National Advisory Board Member of the International Rescue Committee - Framework.

Christina Griffin-Jones (she/her) is a member of Black Lives Matter: San Diego Chapter and is one of the founders of March for Black Womxn San Diego, Dede McClure Memorial Community Bail Fund, and We All We Got San Diego. Christina has lived on stolen and occupied Kumeyaay land, that colonizers later named San Diego County, for all of her life.

Paige Coe (they/them) is the Community Relations Chair of the San Diego Black LGBTQ Coalition, Training Specialist for the Gender Phluid Collective (GPC), and sits on the Black LGBTQ+ Community Advisory Committee (BLCAC) at The San Diego LGBT Center.

Sharon Elise, Ph.D. (she/her) is a Professor of Sociology at CSU San Marcos and is Associate Vice President for Racial & Social Justice, South California Faculty Association.

Please register here:

https://SDSU.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_iy2YsUrFQOe1YbuvKJJ9EA

For questions, please contact: Dr. Minjeong Kim, mkim@sdsu.edu